Re: United States v. Collins, No. 1:18-cr-567-VSB (S.D.N.Y.)

Dear Judge Broderick:

I write to follow up on my March 22, 2019 letter to the Court regarding the decision of the U.S. House of Representatives (“House”) to seek leave to file as amicus curiae in the above-captioned matter to present the House’s views on the proper application of the Speech or Debate Clause, U.S. Const. art. I § 6, cl. 1, and legal issues related to congressional documents and information. The Bipartisan Legal Advisory Group of the House, which “speaks for, and articulates the institutional position of, the House in all litigation matters,”¹ has authorized my office to seek leave to file as amicus curiae. As indicated in my March 22 letter, the House will file its motion for leave to appear as amicus curiae and the proposed amicus curiae brief no later than Tuesday, April 2, 2019.

Thank you for your consideration of this matter.

Sincerely,

Douglas N. Letter
General Counsel
